

Master+ Junior Ecommerce Consultant (f/m/d)

Dual Study Position - FH Wedel | Ecommerce Management | Hamburg, Germany

At Front Row, we partner with leading brands to accelerate their ecommerce growth. We leverage our capabilities and proprietary technology to design, market, distribute and accelerate brands on a global scale. We help our clients expand their business and geographic scope with guidance and implementation across digital advertising and retail, optimizing conversion on all major platforms.

Our Consulting team is currently looking for a motivated Master+ Junior Ecommerce Consultant (f/m/d) to support our clients in growing their online business, with a strong focus on Amazon. This is a dual study position in cooperation with FH Wedel, combining hands-on agency experience with your Master's degree in Ecommerce.

What's unique about this role?

- You have the opportunity to learn and grow quickly in the field of Amazon and ecommerce, gaining hands-on experience with Amazon Vendor Central and Amazon Seller Central
- You work with exciting international clients across different industries, providing valuable insights and learning opportunities
- You will benefit from ongoing mentoring and close collaboration with experienced team members who will guide you and help you grow in your role
- You can arrange your working hours flexibly to fit your university schedule at FH Wedel, ensuring a good balance between work and studies

How would you spend your time if you join us?

- You will be your clients' co-pilot and take on responsibility for their projects, specializing in either Amazon Vendor Central or Amazon Seller Central, and supporting successful outcomes
- You will support the primary point of contact for clients, providing advice on e-commerce and Amazon-related topics and contributing to the development and implementation of growth-focused measures
- You will assist in setting up cross-divisional measures (SEO, product data/content optimization, marketing and paid media campaigns, CRM, analytics) to enhance project success and client satisfaction
- You will assist colleagues in their client projects by building and sharing your Amazon channel expertise

Who Are You?

- You are currently enrolled in or accepted into the Master's degree program in Ecommerce at FH Wedel
- You have already gained initial experience in ecommerce, ideally with exposure to Amazon (Vendor Central or Seller Central)
- You have a good understanding of ecommerce processes, including selling, logistics, and customer support

- You demonstrate a commitment to taking ownership of tasks, showcasing a customer-oriented approach
- You are self-motivated, proactive, and eager to take on new challenges and grow your skills daily
- You possess strong analytical capabilities, conceptual strength, and a solution-oriented mindset
- You possess excellent written and verbal communication skills in German & English

What's in it for you?
